

- Have you always wanted to write a grant but did not know where to start?
- Do you have some grant writing experience but could benefit from new information and collaborating with your peers?

One or both of these grant writing workshops offered by United Way could be just the ticket:

Grant Writing Demystified: A workshop for beginning grant writers

May 15, 9 – 12 Cost: $50

Workshop leader: Professor Karen Barrett, PhD

University of Maine Farmington Teaching and Learning Collaborative, 3rd Floor,
Room 329 Kalikow Education Center

Limit of 15 so register early by calling 778-5048 or emailing director@uwtva.org

Grant Writing: Next steps to achieve success

May 22 AND May 29, 9 -12 (Participants must take both the May 22 and 29 sessions which build on each other)

Cost: $100

Workshop leader: Professor Karen Barrett, PhD

University of Maine Farmington Teaching and Learning Collaborative, 3rd Floor,
Room 329 Kalikow Education Center

Limit of 15 so register early by calling 778-5048 or emailing director@uwtva.org

Participants should bring to the first session an identified project, at least 3 funding sources, and a draft budget.